

With two bedrooms and a generous kitchen/dining/living area, The Bradley offers stylish living and exceptional convenience.

The kitchen is tucked neatly along the suite's far wall, allowing ample space for the optional center island or for your own dining table.

The living room area is large enough to accommodate a full-size couch and two occasional chairs.

Access to the balcony from the living room, extends the living space outdoors in the warmer months.

The second bedroom can easily be used as a home office or den.
